

Corey Burrows

Chief Operating Officer
Big Brothers Big Sisters of Central Illinois

Our five bullet points would really be one bullet point - mentoring, but I tried to spell out within mentoring what our focus areas are really aimed at doing. Our formalized programming for college and career readiness doesn't begin until high school with mentor2.0, but is more geared to social/emotional support for the youth in the elementary and middle school years.

One-to-One Mentoring
Social/Emotional Support
Academic, Attendance and Behavioral support
Better Decision-Making Skills
College and Career discussions with mentor/case manager